

Young History Scholar Interns are immersed in American History and gain valuable skills in writing research papers and leading house tours. Interns are a visitor favorite!

Young History Scholar Internship & History Fellowship

The History Fellow lives onsite and acts as the head docent during the summer. The fellowship allows for hands-on experience in visitor services, intern management, and museum operations. This is a great opportunity for a new museum professional or recent graduate.

